

FINCH HANTTON SAFARI FLYING PACKAGE TO TSAVO WEST

Day 1

TSAVO WEST

We fly to Tsavo West National park, aboard Safarilink flight, met and transferred to Finch Hatton's camp. Denys Finch Hatton was one of Kenya's great adventurers. He devoted his life exploring the wild in style. In his camp, dinner was served on fine china with silver and crystal, while the gentle strains of Mozart played in the background. Here in Tsavo, where he lived and died, this tradition lives on. Finch Hatton's camp, a privately owned and managed one man's dream to create the ideal, offers guests a unique opportunity to relive the golden era of the safari in absolute elegance, 5 star comfort, the finest cuisine surrounded by the spectacle of the great African wilderness.

Full day at Amboseli with two extensive game drives. Finch Hatton's lies at the heart of Tsavo West National park, part of Kenya's single largest game reserve. The camp surrounds a natural freshwater spring, flowing through three crystal clear pools, with tents along the water's edge. Yellow barked Acacia Xanthophlea trees surround the tents. It is unfenced and wild. A wide variety of game has been sighted on the surrounding plains.

The springs are home to a resident pod of hippopotamus, which spend their days wallowing in the ponds and their nights grazing around the camp.

Crocodiles and a healthy population of terrapins and monitor lizards also live here, and are often seen sunning themselves at the water's edge. Bird life at Finch Hatton's is spectacular, with over 200 locally recorded species.

Day 3

Return back to Nairobi.
